WHEN IT COMES TO THE WEB, DECEPTION IS REAL.

TROXX HERE, AND I'M PLEASED TO BRING YOU THIS ACTION-PACKED COMIC FEATURING EVERYBODY'S FAVE CRIME-FIGHTING DUO, THE GROSSOLOGISTS.

Ty and Abby are all set to lead you on an adventure deep into the slimiest underbelly of crime. But first, let's take a moment to consider a serious message about a very real place where bad guys like Lance Boil may be hiding—THE INTERNET.

The Internet is a vast, virtual world full of games, blogs, chat rooms, and most of all, millions of people. You may think you are safely tucked away in your home, but via the web, people can easily tap into your private world by pretending to be someone they are not. They might even try to find out who you are by asking for personal information.

Remember, you can't trust everyone you meet, which is why it's so important to surf smart every day!
